Introduction: On April 7, 2022, L.N.D. College, Motihari, in collaboration with the Intellectual Property Office Kolkata, hosted a seminar on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). The event aimed to create awareness and educate students and faculty members about the importance of intellectual property and the mechanisms for its protection.

Participants: The seminar witnessed a significant turnout, with almost 300 students and all teachers of the college participating in the event. The organizers ensured the event's inclusivity by offering a hybrid mode, allowing both physical and virtual attendance.

Key Highlights:

1. Inaugural Session: The seminar commenced with an inaugural session, featuring keynote addresses from distinguished speakers from the Intellectual Property Office Kolkata. They emphasized the role of intellectual property in fostering innovation, creativity, and economic development.
2. Workshops and Sessions: The event comprised interactive workshops and sessions covering various aspects of intellectual property, including patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. Experts provided insights into the process of obtaining and safeguarding intellectual property rights.
3. Case Studies and Success Stories: Real-world case studies and success stories were shared to illustrate the practical applications and benefits of intellectual property protection. These examples aimed to inspire students and faculty to engage in innovative and creative endeavours while understanding the importance of protecting their intellectual creations.
4. Q&A Sessions: Throughout the seminar, participants actively engaged in question-and-answer sessions, providing an opportunity for clarification on specific topics and addressing queries related to intellectual property rights.
5. Networking Opportunities: The event facilitated networking opportunities between students, faculty, and Intellectual Property Office representatives. This interaction allowed for a better understanding of the challenges faced by creators and the available avenues for intellectual property protection.
6. Resource Materials: Participants were provided with resource materials, including brochures, pamphlets, and reference materials, to further enhance their understanding of intellectual property concepts and procedures.

Conclusion: The Intellectual Property Rights Seminar at L.N.D. College, Motihari, in association with the Intellectual Property Office Kolkata, proved to be a valuable platform for education and awareness. The event successfully disseminated knowledge on intellectual property rights, encouraging a culture of innovation and respect for intellectual creations within the college community.

The collaboration between the college and the Intellectual Property Office Kolkata showcased a commitment to fostering a culture of intellectual property protection and innovation, laying the foundation for future endeavours in the field. Overall, the seminar contributed significantly to empowering students and faculty with the knowledge needed to navigate the complexities of intellectual property rights.
